What would summer be without a good book? Here are some of our favorites:

- Our CEO's Pick - The Automatic Millionaire, David Bach - This book gives good, practical advice to the young and old alike on managing personal finances. It's never too late to start! We are particularly proud of the mention of ING DIRECT and the Orange Savings Account(<http://home.ingdirect.com/products/products.html>) in this book.
- The Millionaire Next Door, Thomas Stanley and William Danko - Want to become wealthy and have the lifestyle you really want? Follow seven simple rules and stop renting your life away.
- All You're Worth: The Ultimate Lifetime Money Plan, Elizabeth Warren and Amelia Warren Tyagi - This book is for real people living on a budget who want to learn how to pay for the things they want and need and also how to save for the future.
- Our Special Pick for Parents and Children - Alexander, Who Used to Be Rich Last Sunday, Judith Viorst and Ray Cruz - This is a book for all of those skeptics out there who think a dollar can't get you much. Children will be able to connect with the concept of money management.
