Endorsed by Harry Dent !

“David Bach is a genius at taking proven financial principles and making them even more simple, focused and action-oriented.

In Fight for Your Money, he gets down to the details of how to deal with everything from credit card companies to credit scores.

This book is very comprehensive and is my favorite of David’s books as it is so needed at a time when the fine print in most purchases and service contracts is so onerous and even outrageous!”
